BOULDER TEAM SIDESTEPPING

Proposes Unreasonable Date With Utah.

Unless Colorado Men Change Attitude 'Varsity Won't Meet Them.

Meantime No Football Dates Are Set -Maddock's Position in Matter.

Is the famous Boulder football aggregation trying to sidestep the offer of the University for a game next fall? This question is agitating University gridiron fighters at the present time, and the wor-ry does not seem to be outside the limits

Coach Maddock and Manager Riser, in their eager desire for a game with Boulder, have given in at every point, but the date proposed by Boulder is so unreasonable that it looks as if the two schools will not meet next fall. Boulder has absolutely refused to meet the University at any other time than during the latter part of September or during the very early part of October. The time between these dates and the opening of school at the University will hardly enable Maddock to get a line on his team, much less to put them in shape, Coach Maddock feels, consequently, that the acceptance of the offer would be nothing more that giving Boulder a victory simply for the of the offer would be nothing more than giving Boulder a victory simply for the honor of a game.

While admitting that the Boulderites have a reputation which they must carefully guard, Coach Maddock is unwilling that the University shall risk its opportunity to gain such a reputation in order that the Boulder team may maintain theirs. Consequently Boulder must consent to meet the University during the latter part of October or during November or else forego the privilege of meeting the husky east benchers at all.

In this event a game will probably be arranged with the Colorado School of Mines, which defeated Boulder last year and was awarded the State championship Arrangements for such a game are aiready under way. A game with Denver university will probably be played here on October 28. Arrangements to that end have been practically completed. Early in October the team will probably make a trip to Missoula and will try conclusions with the University of Montana.

Coach Maddock is now bending every coach Maddock is now bending every effort to secure games with Stanford and Berkeley. Letters have been exchanged with the managers at both these schools, but the outcome is still a matter of uncertainty. Coach Maddock is optimistic, however. He says there is still room for hope. Backers of the sport locally are hoping that such may be the case, for a game with either of these colleges would show just how near the top University gridiron warriors really are.

In spite of published statements regarding dates, the fact remains that Utah has as yet set none definitely.

Assignment of Racing Dates.

Assignment of Racing Dates.

NEW YORK. Feb. 17.—Assignment of dates by the Jockey club to local tracks, just announced, includes no time for Morris Park, and it is understood that an arrangement has been reached over that part of the local racing situation which has been bothering Eastern turfmen for some time. Some time ago it was reported that Aqueduct track would be soid to a syndicate and its dates transferred to Morris Park, where it had been expected last season there would be no more racing, and that time would thus be made open for the new Belmont Park track on Long Island.

However, dates have now been assigned for Aqueduct and for the Westchester Racing association, which will control the new track, and no time has been given but it is understood on good authority that the club controlling Morris Park has assigned its lease to some of the others, who will pay $25,000 a year and close its gates.

Baseball Magnates in New York Map Out Game's Future for

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.-The American League of Baseball Clubs today rejected the amendments proposed by the Nationleague clubs, providing for an increase in payments by the two major leagues for players drafted from teams in the minor The National league at a meeting in

The National league at a meeting in Clucinnati some time ago decided to agree to the proposed change, but the action of the American league today will have the effect of preventing any change in the old drafting price.

Under the old agreement the major leagues paid $50 for players drafted from class A leagues; $500 from class B $500 from class B, although an unlimited number could be drafted at the price named from the other classes.

Classes.

The National association proposed an amendment providing for a new class AA. The price for a drafted player from this class was to be fixed at $150; for class A. $1000; class B. $750, class C. $500, and A. 5100; class B. 570; class C. 590, and class D. 5400.

The proposed amendment provided that only one player should be drafted from class AA, and that an unlimited number should be drafted from the other classes at the prices named.

Refuses to Concur.

Refuses to Concur.

Howard Griffiths of Jersey City, representing the national board of the National al association, submitted to the National league today the proposed amendment and received the loague's answer through President Johnson that the league refused to concur.

President Johnson proposed this compromise: That the drafting price be $100 for class AA and A, $700 for class B and $500 for class C and all other classes. The proposed compromise involved an agreement that only two men should be drafted from either classes.

Griffiths, who had power to act for the National association declined to accept the compromise. Johnson then said the American league would agree to act under his proposed compromise scale of prices for one year, and then if the experiment was not satisfactory, pay the prices proposed by the amendment. Griffiths, in behalf of the National association, fistly declined to accept the proposition.

1904 Rules Adopted.

A joint committee on rules of the two major leagues met today and readopted the 1994 rules. Absolutely no change was made. The foul strike rule was dis-cussed, but the joint committee was unan-imous in its opinion that the rule should stand.

Idaho House Passes the Bill.

Fremont County Delegation Went to Support of Measure.

Fight on the Question Has Been Most Bitter and Persistent One of Session.

BOISE, Ida., Feb. 17.-The House today after a three hours debate, passed the House bill abolishing Kootenai county and creating Lewis and Clark counties and creating Lewis and Clark counties out of the territory, with Sand Point and Coeur d'Alene City as the respective county seats. The vote was 25 to 21. It had been thought, owing to powerful political influence, that the bill would be killed, and it did look very equally for it until strength was developed in the southeast, practically the entire Fremont county delegation voting for the measure. The supporters of the bill declare they will pass it through the Senate. The fight had been one of the most bilter and persistent of the session. In explaining his vote Representative Webster of Fremont took occasion to deny that he had been called into conference during the day by Gov. Gooding. It had been reported that the Governor had taken a hand against the measure.

Legislative Monstrosity.

Legislative Monstrosity.

Legislative Monstrosity.

The Senate session was entivened again by debate over the San Francisco Idaho & Montana ralifoud franchise bill, based on a motion to reconsider the adverse vote of the day before. Chairman Nugent of the Judiciary committee spoke at some length, more in explanation of his position than against the motion. He declared that the promoters of the bill had attempted to take advantage of the policy of the administration to encourage all possible internal improvements as a means of putting through an unconstitutional bill, granting extraordinary special privileges, a legislative monstrosity, as the speaker called it. Its effort to embarrass the administration was backed by some Democrats and some renegade Republicans, who had done everything possible to undermine the administration.

Motion to Reconsider Lost.

Motion to Reconsider Lost. As Representative Richards of Ada has taken some interest in the bill and as the relations between Richards and the Governor have not been altogether cordial, it was taken by some that Nugent was driving at the Ada man and those who stood with nim. Later remarks, however, indicated that Nugent had not included Richards in his sweeping condemnation. Nugent said he did not care what was done with the bill so long as it was not referred to any committee of which he generated to any committee of which he was a member. The motion to reconsider was defeated, six to twelve. Darrah, lamb, MacBeth, McBride, Russell and Smith voting for it.

Sunday-Closing Bill.

Sunday-Closing Bill.

The Judiciary committee reported back with a favorable recommendation the Day Sunday-closing bill, with an amendment eliminating the penalty and allowing it to come under the general misdemeanor law. The Benate Republican caucus a few days ago decided to amend the bill so as to put its operations under a local option plan, but at a caucus held last night it was decided to abandon that arrangement. The opponents of the measure claim ten sure votes against it or within one of enough to defeat it.

The Senate passed a bill of considerable importance to irrigationists, extending from two te five years the time for the perfection of water rights.

During the day Gov. Gooding signed the anti-polygamy and adultery bills, which were the cause of early warfare in the Legislature. He also approved the following, enlarging the powers of district court judges sitting in chambers, providing a steel vault and safe for the State Treassiver; granting $1000 a year expenses to justices of the Supreme court elected prior to the last election, against gesceration or mutilation of the flag.

She had regularly given her salary of 56 a week to her aunt, and she had made her little friends gifts with the money obtained from the bank, where her alleged imitation of the firm's signature completely deceived the tellers.
